I am a creative lateral thinker and a curious Computer Science and Digital Communications student exploring various areas of technology. I believe in lifelong learning and that curiosity, patience, self-reflection and transparent collaboration are the key to mastering any challenge. What we clearly structure in our minds, we can also turn into reality.

Do you have a minute? Let's solve it together! 😊

I'd like to invite you to a little puzzle - everyday life and CVs don't have to be boring.

Three pillars protect information: "Confidentiality, Integrity, Availability."

Read me carefully, the key is hidden - not as mysterious as the organization itself.
